Storms rarely arrive at a convenient time. A gale that rips tiles loose at two in the morning, or a sudden leak dripping through a bedroom ceiling on a Sunday evening, needs dealing with straight away rather than after the weekend. Cardiff sits right in the path of Atlantic weather, with driving rain and strong coastal winds that can find Cardiff roofing company any weak spot in a roof. Redland Roofing Cardiff is an independent, family-run roofing business from South Wales that has served Cardiff and South East Wales for over 30 years, and our emergency roof repair service runs 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Emergency roof repairs cover the problems that cannot wait. Storm damage, missing or broken tiles after high winds, flashing torn away from a chimney and sudden leaks are the calls we hear most often. Our aim is always to stop the water getting in and prevent further damage to ceilings, insulation and belongings, then explain clearly what has happened. Because we offer honest advice, we will tell you if a straightforward repair will fix the problem, and we will never push a replacement you do not need. Assessments and quotes are free and carry no obligation, and our pricing is transparent with no hidden costs, even when the call comes in at an unsociable hour. As emergency roofers in Cardiff, our cover reaches right across the city and beyond. In central Cardiff we regularly attend older terraces in Roath, roofers cardiff Cathays, Adamstown and Riverside, where slate roofs and chimney stacks take the brunt of winter weather. In the north west we cover Whitchurch, Llandaff North, Gabalfa, Birchgrove and Tongwynlais, and in the north east we reach Pentwyn, Llanedeyrn, Lakeside and Pontprennau. Being based in Rumney, east Cardiff, also puts Llanrumney, St Mellons and Trowbridge right on our doorstep. Common emergency causes include damaged or missing tiles, cracked flashing around chimneys and skylights, blocked gutters overflowing in heavy rain and cracked flat roof surfaces on rear extensions and garages.

FAQ About

Roofers Cardiff How much should I pay for roof repairs in Cardiff? It depends on the damage, the roof type and access. As a rough guide, Redland Roofing Cardiff price minor jobs such as replacing a few broken tiles from around £150 to £300, while storm damage or new flashing usually runs from £300 to £800 or more. Every quote is free and written down before any work starts, so there are no surprises. How can I tell a dodgy roofer from a good one? Be wary of anyone who knocks on the door uninvited, pushes for cash up front or claims the whole roof needs replacing without showing you why. A reputable Cardiff roofer will give a written quote, explain the guarantee, confirm they are insured and show you photos of the problem. Redland Roofing Cardiff do all of this as standard on every job. Who are some reputable roofers in Cardiff? Look for an established local firm with a long track record and plenty of genuine reviews. Redland Roofing Cardiff are an independent, family-run business that has served Cardiff and South East Wales for over 30 years and holds a 4.8-star rating from more than 200 Google reviews. They are based at 1 Trecinon Road in Rumney and cover the whole city. Does my roofer have to give me a guarantee in writing? You should always ask for it. Redland Roofing Cardiff set out the guarantee on labour in every written quote, and materials carry manufacturer warranties where applicable. If anything isn't right after the job, the team come back and put it right. How do I know if a roofer is any good? Check recent reviews, ask how long they have been trading and see whether they explain the problem clearly before quoting. Redland Roofing Cardiff customers often mention being shown photos of the issue, quick next-day repairs and tidy, polite teams. A roofer who recommends a repair rather than an unnecessary replacement is usually a good sign. What questions should I ask my roofer before work starts? Ask what exactly is wrong and how they know, what the written quote includes, how long the job will take, whether they are insured and what guarantee you get. For a full re-roof, ask how the house will be kept dry overnight. Redland Roofing Cardiff leave roofs watertight at the end of every working day and give a clear timeline before starting. How long does a roof last in Wales? Welsh rain, coastal winds and freeze-thaw cycles all shorten roof life. A well-installed concrete or clay tile roof can last 40 to 60 years with maintenance, and good slate can outlast the building. Felt flat roofs tend to last 10 to 15 years, while EPDM rubber, which Redland Roofing Cardiff specialise in, can last 25 to 30 years or more. What usually causes a roof to leak? The most common culprits on Cardiff homes are slipped or missing tiles, cracked flashing around chimneys, blocked gutters, worn valleys and failed lead joints. On extensions and garages, flat roofs often leak where the surface has cracked or a joint has opened. Redland Roofing Cardiff trace the source first so you only pay to fix the real problem. Do I need planning permission to replace my roof in Cardiff? A like-for-like replacement on a standard house usually falls under permitted development. In conservation areas such as Pontcanna, parts of Roath and Llandaff, on listed buildings, or if you are changing materials, you may need consent from Cardiff Council. Redland Roofing Cardiff can advise on this during the free assessment. How quickly can a roofer come out in an emergency? Redland Roofing Cardiff run a 24/7 emergency service across Cardiff and South East Wales for storm damage and sudden leaks. The aim is to get someone to you as quickly as possible and make the roof watertight. Call 07884 013048 at any time of day or night. How long does a full roof replacement take? A standard terraced or semi-detached house in Cardiff typically takes 2 to 4 days, weather permitting. Larger detached homes, such as many in Cyncoed and Lisvane, or roofs with complex shapes usually take 4 to 7 days. Redland Roofing Cardiff confirm the timeline in writing before work begins.
