Denmark Vacations

Visiting a foreign country overseas can be exciting and even a little intimidating. The unfamiliar can be both a great adventure and a potential disaster. Here are a few places of interest and trusted lodging places recommended by other travelers.Staying in Friendly Copenhagen

Copenhagen is one of Denmarks most popular destinations for tourists. It features the Trivoli Gardens, a combination theme park, amusement park and scenic garden that provides fun and entertainment for the whole family. The Round Tower observation deck is also popular for its panoramic 3 day masai mara safari from nairobi views and spectacular scenery. Glyptotek is an interesting statue of The Little Mermaid erected in 1913, commemorating the Hans Christian Anderson story of the same name. Frederiks Church is also popular with visitors this large marble Baroque church stood unfinished from 1770 until 1874 and was finally completed in 1894. Popular lodgings while in Copenhagen are: The Hilton Copenhagen, Copenhagen Marriot Hotel, Avenue Hotel, Radisson SAS Scandavic Hotel, Radisson SAS Royal Hotel Copenhagen and The Square.Visiting Beautiful, Cultural OdenseVisitors to Odense will want to include the Egeskov Castle on their travel itinerary as well as the Odense City Museum, Carl Nielson Museet Museum, The Railway Museum, and Hans Christian Andersons Childhood Home. Also popular are the Frydenlund, a beautiful nature center and wildlife park, the inspiring St. Canutis Cathedral, and The Odense Zoo which will provide fun filled hours for everyone in your traveling company. If you still have energy, the Brandts Klaedlfabrik Art Museum, Friluftsbaget Water Park, the Museum of Photographic Art and the ever popular Aquatic World can leave you exhausted and smiling at the end of the day.After visiting all the exciting exhibits that Odense offers to visitors, the weary traveler can get a good nights rest at The Hotel Amsger averaging $114 a night, The Hotel Domir for around $84 a night, The Best Western Hotel Knudsens Gaard at an average of $195 a night, The Clarion Hotel Plaza, $205 a room, and The Tulip Inn City Hotel Odense for about $171 per night per room.While Denmark has many wonderful sights and experiences it is necessary to narrow down a few choices and choose your stops before setting out on your exploration of all that Denmark has to offer. The stops listed here are by no means an all inclusive list of all the attractions available, but is intended as a guide to 3 day luxury Masai Mara safari peak your interest and invite personalized exploration of the attractions in Denmark and help you plan an itinerary that suits your individual tastes and interests.Denmark has much to offer the bird watcher as well as the extreme thrill seeker and all of us in between.