The first group of factors is economic damages, the losses you can add up with receipts and records. These include bills for the Midland Car Accident Lawyer ambulance, the emergency room at Midland Memorial Hospital, surgery, therapy and prescriptions. They include future medical care if your doctors expect you'll need it. They include lost wages, and lost earning capacity if the injury changes the kind of work you can do. For someone who works oilfield shifts out of Midland Industrial Park or on a lease in Martin County, a back injury can affect earnings for years. Property damage to your vehicle belongs in this group too. Non-economic damages are harder to measure but just as real. Other factors can raise or limit what a case may be worth. Fault is one. Under Texas proportionate responsibility, your recovery is reduced by your share of blame and ends entirely if you are found more than 50 percent at fault. Insurance coverage is another. Texas minimum liability coverage is $30,000 per injured person, so a serious claim against a driver carrying only the minimum may need to look at your own uninsured or underinsured motorist coverage or other policies. The Doan Law Firm works with trusted medical and economic professionals to calculate losses and prepares for trial when an insurer won't make a fair offer. The firm, which has served injured clients since 2000, reports recovering over $1 billion for clients as of 2022, but past results never guarantee the outcome of your case. The exact percentage is set out in writing in your fee agreement before any work begins. How much of a $25,000 settlement will I actually receive? Founder Jimmy Doan was named to the Top 25 Motor Vehicle Trial Lawyers in 2026, and insurers know which firms are prepared to go to court. What should you not tell your insurance company after a crash? Avoid apologizing, guessing about speed or distances, or saying you feel fine before a doctor has checked you. Anything you say in a recorded statement can be used to argue you share the blame, which matters under Texas rules that cut your recovery by your percentage of fault. The Doan Law Firm can handle those calls for you from the start. What is the biggest mistake people make with a car accident claim? Delaying medical treatment is one of the most costly. The Doan Law Firm documents both economic losses and non-economic harm, such as pain, mental anguish and physical impairment, before negotiating with insurers. What is the hardest injury to prove after a car accident? Injuries that don't show up on an X-ray, like whiplash, soft tissue damage, mild traumatic brain injury and post-crash anxiety, are often the hardest to prove. Consistent treatment records, doctor notes and a daily pain journal help. The Midland team investigates beyond the police report to build evidence that insurers can't easily dismiss. Can I get compensation for anxiety after a car accident? Yes, Texas law allows recovery for mental anguish when it is tied to the crash and properly documented. Fear of driving, trouble sleeping and panic attacks after a wreck on I-20 or SH 191 are real harms. The Doan Law Firm can connect clients with trusted medical professionals so these effects are recorded and valued fairly. How likely is it to get sued after a car accident in Midland? Most crash claims settle through insurance without anyone being personally sued, especially when the at-fault driver carries at least the Texas minimum of 30/60/25 coverage. Lawsuits become more likely when injuries are serious and exceed the policy limits.
