

Popular wedding dates, especially during summer and fall, tend to book up well in advance, and Annie Paige Photography recommends reaching out as early as possible once a date is set. Waiting too long to book photography can mean a preferred photographer is already unavailable for a specific date. Early booking also gives more time to plan an engagement session ahead of the wedding itself.

Annie Paige Photography | 59 State St, Portland, ME 04101 | (207) 841-4333

This advance planning has become standard advice given how much demand Portland elopement photographers builds during peak wedding season. Call (207) 841-4333 as soon as your wedding date is set.