In the Roanoke Valley, a basement can be almost anything. It might be a finished family room with a big TV, a laundry area, a home gym, a teenager's hangout or a storage zone holding everything from holiday decorations to camping gear. Whatever yours is, it probably gets less cleaning attention than the rest of the house. The Happy Housekeepers lists cleaning basements among its specialized house cleaning tasks, and it has been working in Roanoke homes since Article source 1979.

Basements collect a different kind of mess. Cobwebs gather in corners and around ductwork, dust settles on stored boxes and exercise equipment, and the floor picks up grit from the garage entrance or the walkout door. Many Roanoke County homes are built into hillsides, so walkout basements see plenty of foot traffic from the backyard.

Humidity plays a role too. Lower levels tend to stay cooler and damper than the main floor, especially during Roanoke's sticky summers. That can leave a musty feel if the space is not cleaned regularly. Removing dust, cobwebs and grime is an important part of keeping a basement pleasant to use, whether it is a playroom or a place to fold laundry.

The Happy Housekeepers | 5145 Starkey Rd, Roanoke, VA 24018 | (540) 774-4299

A basement clean can include many of the same tasks as the rest of the house. Carpets are vacuumed, hard floors are mopped, furniture is dusted and baseboards and window sills get attention. If there is a bathroom or wet bar downstairs, it gets a total clean-up. Cobwebs are removed where needed, which is often a big job in a lower level.

Many homeowners schedule basement cleaning as part of a spring or fall cleaning, when they are already thinking about the whole house. It is also popular before listing a home for house cleaning Roanoke sale, since buyers in Cave Spring, Salem and Vinton often spend real time looking at finished lower levels.

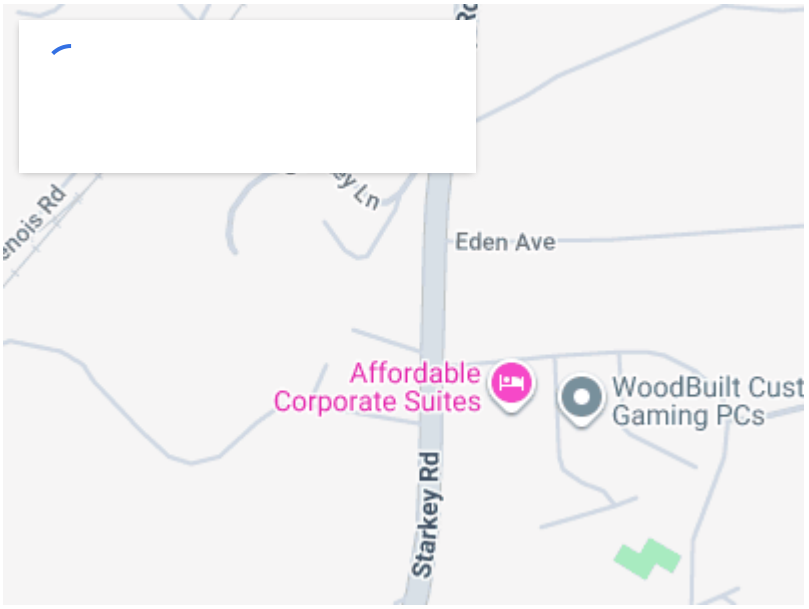

The Happy Housekeepers is licensed, bonded and insured, employees are bonded and insured by the company and the business holds a BBB blue seal. Estimates are free and come with no obligation, and Visa, Mastercard, American Express and Discover are accepted.

Basement cleaning also makes a lot of sense after a big project. If you have just cleared out years of storage, finished a renovation downstairs or moved a home office to the lower level, the dust left behind can drift up through the rest of the house. A thorough clean of the basement keeps that dust from traveling upstairs and gives you a fresh, usable space to enjoy.

Reclaim the space downstairs. Call The Happy Housekeepers at (540) 774-4299 or visit 5145 Starkey Rd, Roanoke, VA 24018 to ask about basement cleaning for your home.
