Mid-range is the sweet spot in the Mara: a solid tented camp or lodge inside or near the reserve, private vehicle, and all fees included.

At this level you get hot water, reliable power, Masai Mara day safari from Nairobi good guiding and a vehicle you are not sharing with strangers. Camps are usually smaller and quieter than the big lodges.

Where mid-range saves money is transport and season. Road transfers cost less than flights, and green season rates drop noticeably. Ask for the itemised inclusions. The difference between two similarly priced quotes is usually the vehicle type and whether park masai mara day trip from nairobi fees are bundled. Options are at %LINK%.
